

OpenCities Content Type Directory

Below is a list of OpenCities content types and a short description about what the page does. Click on the blue title of each content type for more information. Please note: this list includes all relevant content types that you need to know about at this time.

You will need to log into the OpenCities Help Center to access the hyperlinked pages.

General

A flexible content type used to display lists and information about any topic in the site tree structure.

Services

Share the services you offer, along with the ways they can be accessed or completed (online, over the phone, etc) and the steps involved.

Initiatives

Showcase the medium- to long-term objectives of your council.

News Article

Create news content pages for display in publish order in relevant news lists on the homepage and the full news listing page.

Events

Keep visitors informed about what's happening in your community.

Landing Pages

Landing pages are used to introduce a section in the site tree and display child page content appropriately.

Meeting Document (Minutes & Agendas)

Record minutes, agendas and other information about meetings.

Works and Projects

Promotes details about any upcoming or ongoing council works and projects in the community.

All OpenCities Content Types